

NSC BRIEFING

6 May 1954

INDOCHINA MILITARY SITUATION

- I. Third phase Viet Minh assaults Dien Bien Phu began night 1-2 May.
 - A. 10 to 12 battalions hit French positions main complex and Isabelle.
 - B. Overwhelmed six positions.
 - C. Altogether, Eliane Haut 3, Eliane Bas 1 and 2, Huguette 4 and 5, and Isabelle 5 were lost.
 - D. French counterattacked. At end 2 May, had retaken Eliane Bas 2, Huguette 4 and Isabelle 5.
 - E. Isabelle 5, however, totally destroyed. Only listening posts could be established.

DIA and DOS review(s) completed.

F. Lull in activity followed, but assaults began again on night 3-4 May.

1. Four enemy battalions retook Huguette 4.

II. Intensity fight illustrated by casualties.

A. French losses up to two battalions.

B. French estimate half attacking enemy force became casualties (about 6,000).

III. Viet Minh seem still determined take garrison.

A. French say enemy still moving replacements Dien Bien Phu -- as many as 16,000 raw recruits. Many, however, won't arrive for several weeks.

B. Enemy¹ supplies probably adequate.

25X1

IV. French have touch-and-go supply situation, understrength units.

A. Weather and constantly dwindling drop area makes supply unpredictable. On 2 May, French dropped 130 tons; 40 percent , lost.

B. Book value French garrison 11 battalions, but each down from normal 800 strength to between 200 and 300. Effective strength no more than 3,500, compared with 14,000 on 13 March.

25X1

25X1

- C. French now reinforcing with a French paratroop battalion; 109 dropped main positions night 2-3 May, another 128 next night.
- D. Garrison reported exhausted, however.

25X1

VI.

25X1

B. French already sorely pressed by infiltrated enemy, must keep limited mobile reserves hopping.
Viet Minh may now have capability permanently cutting Hanoi-Haiphong communications.

25X1

25X1

3. Dismal prospect this: after Dien Bien Phu enemy can in several weeks reinforce delta area heavily; French will find delta reinforcement more difficult. Meantime, enemy strengthens hold delta populace, expands bases there. Gets ready for big push in fall, perhaps sooner (opinion U.S. Consul Sturm just returned Hanoi).

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000300020025-5

VII. In other Indochina areas, situation changed little past week.

- A. Central Laos, Viet Minh avoiding major engagements.
- B. Southern Laos and northern Cambodia, four Viet Minh battalions collecting food, organizing bases preparation possible further advance southward.
- C. Assistant army attaché Saigon, after trip Cambodia last week, considered five Cambodian battalions invasion area adequate to meet threat and army under competent control defense minister.

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000300020025-5

1. However, he criticized completely defensive mentality, poor tactical judgment Cambodian officers. They calling for more barbed wire, more machine pistols; one company 120 men at Kratie has entire strength in crowded rectangle 125 by 75 yards.

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000300020025-5